Ilse D'Hollander

Ilse D'Hollander, an abstract painter from Belgium little known outside of Europe, left the world far too early in 1997 at the age of twenty-nine. But she managed to leave behind an accomplished body of work that, though modest, overwhelms. Gentle sea greens, pale to putrid yellows, and lugubrious browns submerge her melted-around-the-edges forms into a hazy twilight atmosphere that's unsettling and seductive.
