What to See at Art Basel Hong Kong 2019

Sean Kelly Gallery
New York, United States

Mariko Mori, Plasma Stone IV, 2019. Courtesy of the artist and Sean Kelly Gallery, NY.

Sean Kelly shows at Art Basel Hong Kong for the seventh consecutive year with works by a number of its artists, among them Mariko Mori. The multimedia phenomenon of the 1990s is displaying new work in the form of sculpture. Produced using technically advanced methods, these luminous pieces centre on Mori's inquiry into the mysteries of the universe through her deepening interest in unobservable energy.
