Each week, we search for the most exciting and thought-provoking shows, screenings, and events. In light of the global health crisis, we are currently highlighting events and digitally, as well as in-person exhibitions open in the New York area. See our picks from around the world below. (Times are all EST unless otherwise noted.)

6. "Hugo McCloud and Sean Kelly in Conversation" at Sean Kelly, New York

Dealer Sean Kelly will chat over Zoom with Hugo McCloud about the artist's current show at the gallery, "Burdened." On view through February 27, the show features paintings ingeniously made from single-use plastic bags, the ultimate symbol of waste and the environmental dangers posed by our reliance on plastic. The artist will speak to those issues, as well as about labor and geopolitics.

Price: Free with registration
